AUTHORITY ON DRUG AND ALCOHOL ABUSE TREATMENT WILL GIVE PROGRAM AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

Dr. Michael Smith will present a three-part program covering substance abuse treatment and the basic principles of Chinese medicine Aug. 2 and 3 at the University of Montana.

The program will give an overview of his pioneering work at Lincoln Hospital in New York City. He will present guidelines and practical techniques for counseling and for acupuncture and acupressure treatments.

He will give an introduction to acupuncture and related techniques at the session Friday, Aug 2, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. At sessions Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. he will deal with acupuncture detoxification and acupuncture for emotional balance.

Dr. Smith is medical director of the Substance Abuse Division, Lincoln Medical and Mental Health Center, Bronx, New York. He chairs the National Acupuncture Detoxification Association and serves on the United Nations ad hoc Committee on Drug Abuse.

He received his M.D. from the University of California Medical School in San Francisco and completed his psychiatric residency at Lincoln Hospital Bronx. He is also trained as an acupuncturist.

Registration and payment of the $70 fee are required by July 24.

Information about campus housing, registration, continuing education credit and the program is available from the Center for Continuing Education, 125 Main Hall, University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; telephone (406) 243-2900.
